SCHOOLS OPEN SATURDAY

"Billeted" Described As Pleasing Com
The New York dramatic critics and the Manhattan theatre-going public as well, agree that one of the heights of acting in New York this season was contributed by Margaret Anglin in her delightful English love-comedy "Billeted," which will be the attraction at the Lyric theater on Nov. 27.

"Billeted" is the co-work of F. Hennyson Jesse and H. H. Harwood. The comedy entertained London for one year before it was revealed in New York and Chicago by Miss Anglin, where it repeated the London success and would have remained indefinitely, but for previous bookings elsewhere. Although "Billeted" has its inspiration in the present war, it is not a war play. It deals with the moral aspects of the war and not the dramatic, and deals with them from a deliciously farcifical standpoint. It is a comedy of manners and affords a delightful two and a half hours entertainment.

Says Mahoney, Checking Wood and Coal Loads.

The city department of public utilities, through Sealer of Weights and Measures Mahoney, is calling the attention of the public to the slipshod practice of buying wood by the load. By this method the public has been cheated repeatedly and of late a number of complaints have been received by the department. In some instances as much as $20 a cord has been charged by wood dealers when instances as much as $20 a cord has been charged by wood dealers when the cost was figured out, Mr. Mahoney declared.

In addition to seeing that wood is not being sold at an exorbitant price, the department has been checking up loads of coal picked up on the streets, driving them to nearby scales and proving their weight.

MORE LIQUOR CASES

Judge Martin Fleming was confronted in police court Monday morning by the usual heavy "day after the night before" docket. Those arrested during the week-end were, for the most part, charged with minor offenses, including numerous cases of public drunkenness, one of larceny and a few disorderly conduct cases. The drunks, it developed, were all hard working men of both races who had momentarily fallen and since the judge has a great respect for hard working men, the fines were few. Transporting liquor, however, is regarded as quite a serious offense. H. G. Edwards was bound over to the grand jury under a $2,000 bond upon just such a charge, and the Columbian hotel came into the limelight once more when its proprietor, Lon Sparks, appeared before the bench of justice in connection with the same case, for the contraband was addressed to his hotel. His case was dismissed.

Capt. Baker got wind Sunday that Police Court Has "Morning After"

Capt. Baker got wind Sunday that there was a trunk just loaded down with liquor at the Union station consigned to the Columbian hotel awaiting to he moved. Patrolman Angel was sent to keep his eye on the trunk. The liquor crib was not hard to locate, for someone had handled it just a little too roughly and several bottles of the "flutonic" had heen broken. The liquor was confiscated and with it was H. G. Edwards. It was brought out at the trial that the man had reserved a room at the hotel. To avoid possible detection he had addressed his trunk from Kentucky to Murfreesboro, Tenn. Here without allowing it to be unloaded he reshipped it to Chattanooga. But it proved that the officers are suspicious of strong trunks, even when they come from such a harmless little burg.

It was also brought out that the man

It was also brought out that the man has been before the city judge before and is alleged to be a medicine manu-facturer with an establishment on Pop-lar street between Eighth and Ninth.

"That's right," agreed Attorney Carl Aberanthy, with a nod of his head. W. C. Roberson, state food and drug inspector, was present at the trial and stated that he would look after the medicine part of the affair some time today.

Tom Kyle and Bertha Kyle, colored, have been separated for fully two weeks, but still the smoldering fires of weeks, but still the smoldering fires of undying affection are apparently ablaze, for poor Bertha can't bear to see the fickle Tom in the company of another. Bertha just dropped down to Tom's house to get some clothes, she said. The husband wasn't expecting company briught and early Sunday morning. An argument ensued, the enraged husband drawing his trusty revolver. He was fined $25 and costs. The judge thought he recognized a bad man. Upon being questioned it developed the negro had asked for deferred classification on account of dependents, but according to his wife he has not given her a cent in some time. The arrest was made by Abercrombie and Minor.

A. F. Anderson, a "not quite 15-year-old" soda jerker at Morrison's No. 3, was fined $2 and costs upon a charge of disorderly conduct. He was greatly disappointed last night at finding the Oak street car he was planning to mount

PARTY COMES PARK

AT OGLETHORPE PRISON BARRACKS TODAY.

Unable to Finish Up on Previous Visit Due to Size of Local Camp.

Local Camp.

Dr. Chas. Vuillemnier, Swiss consul at Philadelphia, and party of two attaches of the Swiss legation, arrived in Chattanooga Sunday night and are spending the day today finishing up the inspection of the war prison barracks at Fort Ogiethorpe.

Ogiethorpe has the largest prison camp in the country and it necessarily takes much longer to complete the inspection of the barracks here than elsewhere. When the party was here several days ago they found it impossible to finish up in the time allotted, and so went on to Atlanta where the McPherson prison barracks were inspected.

The party went out to Ogiethorpe this morning, and the commandant of the barracks, Col. Penrose, thought they would be able to complete the inspection and get away on a train tonight. Col. Penrose stated that the return was not made because of any special condition but merely to finish up the work begun last week.
